Random stories of the hundreds...

Two students named P. and D. whose father is a daily wage worker. He said that because of this school, he is able to send his two daughters to study.

S. and Z.'s father is a sad case. Their mother came to school crying telling us that many times they don't have food.

(It is heart wrenching stories like these that make me so thankful that because of our sponsors we can serve healthy midday meals.)
